

Frequently Asked Questions

What areas do you work in?

We service all of New England, most frequently Massachusetts and Rhode Island.

Do you provide anything, besides flowers, for events such as candles?

Yes! We have a large selection of vessels for tabletop designs, urns and other larger containers for statement pieces, and candlelight options from votives and hurricanes to lanterns.

What can we expect during the day of?

We will arrive at your venue with everything that has been decided on for your design plan. We set everything up and have it looking beautiful by the time your guests arrive. At the end of the evening we come back to collect all of our rental items and break down anything that has been installed by us for your wedding.

Is delivery and set up included?

Your proposal will show the delivery, set up and break down cost which is based on the amount of product we are bringing and the labor involved in setting up and breaking down the event.

Can we make changes to our proposal after signing?

Of course! We are here to help you create the floral vision of your dreams and we know that vision may change throughout the planning process.

Do you have any packages or minimums?

Everything we do is custom and based on the client's style, the venue, and season. We do not have packages and we do not have starting minimums; our pricing guide is to show what a possible investment based upon the size of your wedding could be.

What happens once we have signed the proposal?

Upon signing, we collect a 20% deposit and add your wedding to our calendar! We are here to answer any questions you may have in the months leading up to your wedding. 4-6 weeks prior to your date we do a full proposal review and make any necessary updates to your design plan.
